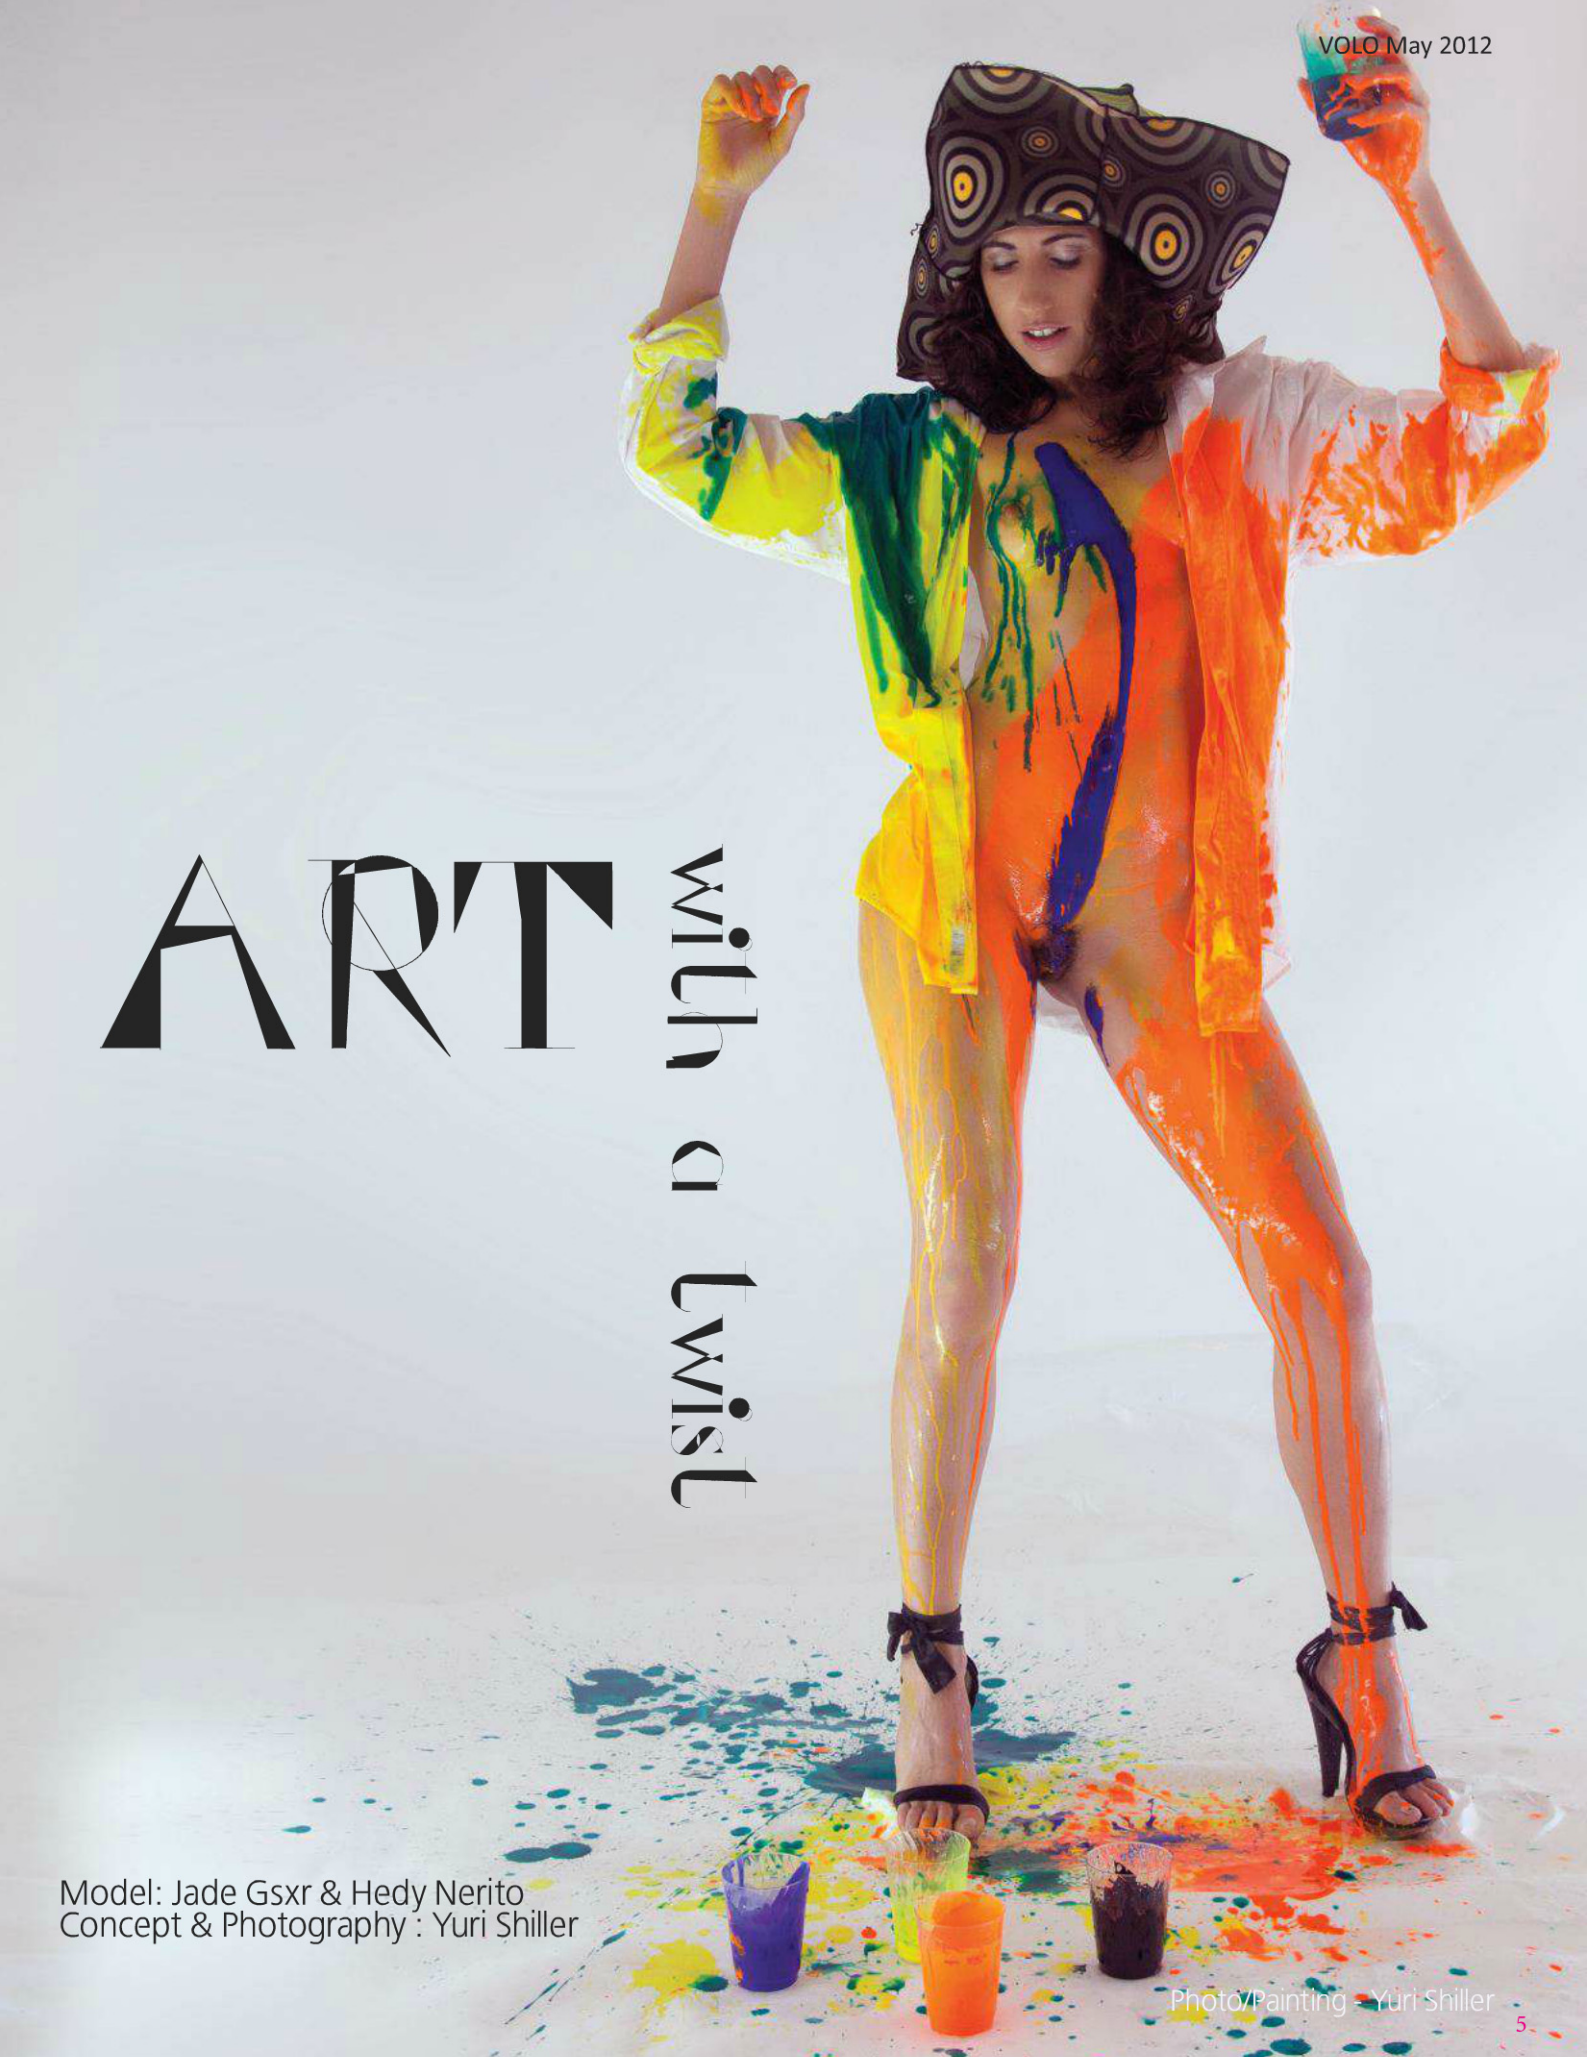
BODY



ART with a twist

Model: Jade Gsxr & Hedy Nerito
Concept & Photography : Yuri Shiller

All it needed was a bottle of wine and an Italian bellle

...and Hedy was ready to add some color to the evening

Jade on the other hand is all about art with an exotic mix of interests

An exotic Russian Asian mix herself, she is an artist of significant repute in San Francisco

Her best quality? She hates clothes!

The paint looked great as it dripped and slithered down their smooth skin

But it wasnt until they made art with it, did Yuri's true genius come to forth

In the end Jade had again created Art,
but with a twist!

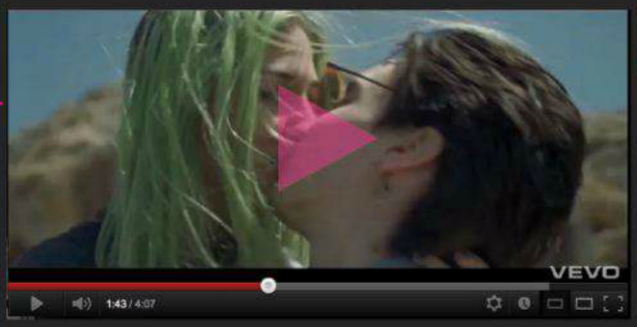
OUR FAVORITE SONGS, VIDEOS & ARTISTS..NOW!

1. Calvin Harris "Feel So Close" – Music Video

I love this song - from Scotland's superstar DJ Calvin Harris! It was released late last year, but is a 2012 club anthem with his awesome vocal & bang'n electro pop groove & bassline. The video shows teens having fun, an old cowboy & Harris trying to get close to a love or maybe he's a stalker, either way, it's an instant club classic!



2. Gossip "Perfect World"

I can't stop listening to this song, by this eclectic dance punk trio, fronted by the fearless Beth Ditto & produced by super-genius Amy Whinehouse producer Mark Ronson & dance-pop magnate Brian Higgins. It's a blend of rock guitars & dark, dance 80's style grooves with Ditto's powerful dark vocals.

3. Madonna "Girl Gone Wild" LIVE at Ultra Music Festival - Avicci Remix

Madonna is like a chameleon, always reinventing herself. This new remix got a huge spark by superstar DJ Avicci & was debuted at the Ultra Music Festival- Miami live! The crowd of 80K went crazy & rightfully so, as it's an infectious groove with Avicci's signature sound & Madonna's catchy hook.

4. Fun featuring Janelle Monae "We Are Young" – Music Video

This jam by Fun featuring soulful songbird Janelle Monae is Fun (no pun intended) & the video is nuts & when you think you get it, they hit you with a left-turn, about crazy relationships. It's a catchy dance track that has topped the Billboard 100 & is sure to please new & old fans with a massive chorus that stays in your head!

5. Skrillex featuring Sirah "Bangarang" – Music Video

Skrillex has been quoted as being the nirvana of dance music, but whatever you say, he is definitely infecting millions with his energetic dubstep tracks. I hung out with him at Ultra-Miami & he is a cool dude. Video kicks off with 3 masked kids robbing a fat ice cream man - need I say more.

Hey Everyone, welcome to the April edition of my Music.Beatz column. 2012 rolls on to be a big year in music. Soundtracks continue to be a huge way to get music to fans, as hot new movie "Hunger Games" (which is awesome!) proves, with its soundtrack debuting at no. 1 on the Billboard top 200 and packing an all-star lineup including Kid Cudi, Arcade Fire, Maroon 5, Civil War and many more. Also, check out new releases by Mars Volta, DJ Paul Van Dyk, Neon Trees, Nikki Minaj & American Idol star Adam Lambert, and many other great artists. In other news, Madonna made a special appearance at the Ultra Music Festival to debut a new remix with superstar DJ Avicci, which was amazing, what wasn't, was that she made a reference to the Drug Ecstasy & got recently bashed by DJ's Deadmau5, Pete Tong and many others – what was she thinking?

The Winter Music Conference in Miami enjoyed one of its biggest years, as Electronic music continues to mainstream. Ultra Music Festival was a huge success, taking over Bayfront Park & downtown Miami, with over 170K electronic music fans attending from all over the world and closing out the WMC on a high note. UMF festival plans have been announced for Poland, Argentina, Korea, Spain & Brazil. Other highlights at the WMC included Go Big's sold out pool parties at the surfcomber hotel, UMF official afterparties at Mia Nightclub, Swedish House Mafia's Masquerade Motel & lots of other amazing parties. Festivals around the world continue to grow, as Lollapalooza Brazil's 1st edition sold-out & Electric Daisy Carnival's New York edition also celebrated a 1st year sell-out selling 60K tickets in 3 hours. Electro duo, LMFAO continue their global domination by headlining their own massive arena festival tour with special guests Far East Movement, Natalia Kills and more. - Sason Bishope Parry

6. Garbage "Blood For Poppies"

Electronic grunge band Garbage is back! Poppies is the 1st single from their 1st album in almost a decade & shows lead singer Shirley Manson hasn't lost her vocal edge. The track is full of fuzzy guitars, electronic sounds & their signature dynamics & style. Can't wait to hear the whole album – Due May 15th!

7. FloRida Featuring Sia "Wild One" – Music Video

Flo has done it again with another track that gets elevated by Australian singer-songwriter, Sia's amazing vocal contribution, that makes us believe. This is another song that will dominate the clubs & charts & continue the Floridian Rappers amazing hit streak & the video shows off his wild side!

8. Adele VS. Daft Punk "Something About the Fire"

I love both of these artists & this awesome mash up by DJ Carlos Serrano is great. Both songs individually, Adele's, "Set Fire to The Rain" and Daft Punk's 2001 groove "Something About Us" are undeniable, but pairing them together breathes new life and a new smash hit is born!

9. DJ Fresh ft. Rita Ora "Hot Right Now" – Music Video

This single by UK dub-step & Drum & Bass DJ/Producer is from his upcoming 3rd album & features vocals by Jay Z's Roc Nation dance pop artist from Albania, Rita Ora. It peaked on the UK's I-tunes chart at number one & both artists are breaking ground. The video shows Ora rolling through an urban hood & a cool break dance battle.

10. Blood Orange "Bad Girls"

Just discovered this new act from the independent label Domino Records, home to Franz Ferdinand & Arctic Monkeys. You might remember the multi-talented British musician Dev Hynes whose previous projects include, Test Icicles & Lightspeed Champion. This new project could be his ticket to mass appeal, with his sultry vocals over layered synthpop.

SBP MUSIC VIDEO SPOTLIGHT

PLANET B

""End Of The World"" - Music Video

This very cool music video & song, by Planet B, was shot several years back, but was never released publicly due. The song is a driving Rock track fused with electronica & a hip hop flow about a party at the end of the world produced & written by Planet B. Video was directed by Ian Levasseur, filmed by Kamissi Norwood, produced by Nina Joseph & Sason Bishope Parry, edited by Ben Somkin & casting by Cat, Angela Hernandez, Roberta Shong & Bridget Millet. It was shot at DJ Paul Hemming's San Francisco nightclub -Temple, with a huge cast of hipsters including model Lija Kukle, actress Satine Phoenix & Playboy playmate turned DJ Diamond. The video shows Lija Kukle in a 5th element style role walking through a new dimension, which places her in the future party world of Planet B. From there it's a non-stop musical thrill ride with lots of eye-candy, future-punks & vivid scenes.
